PARTICULARS OF A DOUBLE CRIME IN HIGH LIFE.

From the Philadelphia Ledger, Sept. 25th.

Another terrible domestic tragedy was enacted at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, at No. 4215 Kingsessing avenue, in the Twenty-seventh ward, where Mr. Thomas B. Parker, after shooting his wife in the head, shot himself through the brain, killing himself instantly, the wife is still living, the ball from a small four barrelled Sharp's pistol having passed through her left eyeball, and has not yet been found. Her condition is quite critical. The circumstances of the case are as follows: Thomas B. Parker, the deceased, was a son of the late Isaac Parker, who left a large estate, part of which included the ground upon which the Continental Hotel is built. He has not been in business for many years having inherited a large income from his father's estate, the principal of which was held in trust for him by his brother. About eight years ago Parker married Miss Helen McGregor, he then being about thirty-four years and she twenty years old. They have had but one child, a boy, now about two years old. They reside in elegant style in an ornamental brown stone villa in the western portion of West Philadelphia, the house being surrounded by beautiful grounds, conservatories, &c., and furnished within with most of the luxuries and comforts of the residence of a refined a wealthy family. Mr. Parker's habits have not been such as to make his relations with his wife of the happiest, and for a long time past they have occupied separate rooms, the child occupying a cot in its mother's apartment.

On Tuesday afternoon Mr. Parker was riding in a phaeton driven by his coachman, and on his return his demeanor was noticed as being remarkably sullen and morose. He retired early in the evening and went at once to his room, and nothing more was heard of him until the dreadful deed of the night was done. It seems from the testimony that Parker went to his wife's room with the pistol, and shot her while she was in bed. She arose and fled from the room to that of the servants, where she lay down beseeching the domestics to save her baby, which was still in the crib in the room with its father. The female domestics were afraid to venture into the room, and called out of the window for the coachman, who slept in a room in the stable building. He came to the house as soon as he could, but none of the female servants would come down stairs to let him in, and he gained an entrance by means of a plank by which he entered a second story window. When advised of the condition of affairs he started for the police and a physician, and on returning the party entered Mrs. Parker's room, where they found Parker lying across the foot of his wife's bed, dead, with the pistol in his hand, having shot himself behind the right ear, the ball passing forward to the left, and lodging at the root of the nose. The child was lying in the crib unharmed.

THE VANDERBILT STOCKS.

From the New York Express.

Those who think that Mr. Vanderbilt could have paid the $1,750,000 due from the Lake Shore Railroad Company to the Union Trust Company, should remember that Mr. Vanderbilt has a good many loads to carry. In less than twenty days, four per cent. interest will be due on ninety millions of New York Central and Hudson River and Harlem stock, and this will require over three and a half millions of money. As money does not grow, except as earnings grow and are saved, preparation for a demand like this requires time.—The great mistake was in paying the last dividend of the Lake Shore Road; and it was a great mistake, as proved by the exposure of this indebtedness to the Union Trust Company, which has knocked the stock down from 96 to 80, and even in some of the private sales, to 76, which of course is very far below the real value of the stock.

"Dont put too much confidence in a lover's sighs and vows"; said Mrs. Partington to her niece. "Let him tell you that you have lips like strawberries and cream, cheeks like a carnation, an eye like an asterisk; but such things oftener come from a louder head than a tender heart."

An express company that runs from the "Mississippi westward," in the contract printed on its receipt, disclaims responsibility as carrier "for any loss or damage by fire, the act of God, Indians, or any other public enemies of the Government."

Two young ladies of LaCrosse were standing by the side of a ditch thirteen feet wide, which they didn't know how to cross, when their escort said "snakes," and they cleared it with a bound.

Sarah Jane DeFoe said that she would be married in her old Kentucky home, in spite of her father, and some men tied him to the sofa, the crowd walked in, and while he gnashed his teeth, Sarah Jane was wed.

There are twenty-five young women students at Cornell University, New York.

THE vexed question whether a married woman can become a bankrupt has once more been adjudicated upon, and this time in Indiana, by Judge Gresham, of the United States District Court at Evansville. The case was a proceeding in bankruptcy brought by Hays, Gibbon & Co., of St. Louis, against Rachel Goodman, a married woman.—The petition charged that Mrs. Goodman was the wife of Morris Goodman, and that for several years she had been engaged in business in her own name in Evansville, Indiana, that she was indebted to them in the sum of $487.-27, and had committed an act of bankruptcy. The court ruled that in accordance with the statues of the State a married woman cannot engage in any kind of business on her own account, unless she have separate property; that if a woman, not having separate property engages in business, the profits belong to the husband as the earnings of the wife, and that a married woman in Indiana possessed of no separate estate is relieved of none of the disabilities imposed upon her by the common law. These rules being established by the statues, and the petition failing to show that Mrs Goodman was possessed of any separate property or means with which she was carrying on her business, the court declared that she could not be adjudged a bankrupt. This decision is exactly the reverse of several decisions which have been made in this State in similar cases; the Supreme Court itself having declared that married women can make business contracts, form partnerships, and enjoy the privileges of bankruptcy.

FALSE AND FOOLISH PROPHETS.

From the Chicago Post.

Perhaps the most exasperating idiocy inflicted upon newspaper readers as a consequence of the present crisis, is that which ornaments the columns of the ex-Liberal organs in the shape of statistical arguments going to show an imminent present dangor that the Treasury of the United States may become bankrupt. Some millions of greenbacks have been exchanged for bonds, we are told—but the country is well enough aware of that. Rates of taxation have been reduced, it is added, and the revenue thereby impaired; and the remedy for this, our preternaturally wise political economists assure us, must be sought upon the homœopathic principle, in a still further reduction of taxes on imports! Consequently Congress must be called together to undertake a job of tariff revision that would certainly occupy six months, as a means of relief from a crisis that the same authorities are confident will leave the Treasury as empty as a "Liberal" editor's head in sixty days. This sort of argument illustrates the straits to which abstract theorists are reduced by the supposed necessity of torturing every passing event into fodder for their favorite hobbies. The utter folly of the theory of a probable exhaustion of the Treasury is demonstrated by the fact that there is at this moment in its vaults money enough to more than pay all demands against the government that will accrue up to the first of January—the date of the predicted bankruptcy—leaving all the receipts of the Department to accumulate undisturbed meanwhile. There is a possibility, perhaps, that the expenditures in currency may exceed the receipts from internal revenue in the designated interval, but that would merely necessitate either the sale of a few millions of the gold hoard, or the reissue of a part of the $44,000,000 reserve. If croaking has become a necessity instead of one of the luxuries of existence to the "Liberal" mind, an effort should be made to find themes and occasions for its enjoyment a little less absurd than that offered by the condition of the Treasury.

SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 1.—The articles of incorporation of the Paris & Terre Haute Railroad Company were this day filed in the office of the Secretary of State. The proposed line of the railroad is from Paris, Illinois, in a southeasterly course, striking the line between the States of Illinois and Indiana, near the northeast corner of Clark county, Ill. The amount of the capital stock is $15,000. The Board of Directors is composed of the following persons: R G Hervey, J A Eads, H VanSeller, J Steele and F C Stratton, of Paris, Edgar county; D Hitchcock, Decatur; C J Mae, Mattoon; J Elliott and A Morton, Elbridge, Edgar co

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON!

A FASHIONABLE WEDDING AT A SENSIBLE HOUR.

A Large and Pleasant Party.

For some weeks past there have been numerous indications that something unusual was about to transpire in the social world of Decatur. Milliners and tailors have found their services in active demand, while dry goods stores have been ransacked to find material with which to adorn and beautify the female form divine. All these preparations came to a focus yesterday afternoon, and after barbers, bootblacks, female hairdressers, dressing maids and all the other indispensable adjuncts of well-clad society had put the final touches to the human pictures which the artists in fine clothes had so skillfully wrought upon for weeks—after all these had been satisfactorily concluded, and the momentous hour named in the cards of invitation drew on apace, all these various specimens of well-dressed humanity began to gravitate towards one common center, namely, the elegant mansion of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peddecord, whose daughter, Emma, was to be joined in marriage with Mr. Ernst C. Rurode, of Fort Wayne, Ind. Carriages, coaches, barouches, phaetons and buggies unloaded their precious cargoes of youth and beauty, age and decrepitude, at the door of the residence, and before the hour fixed for the ceremony, five o'clock, the guests had nearly all arrived, and the spacious mansion was crowded to its full capacity.

The parlors and other apartments of the house had been most charmingly decorated for the occasion. Festoons of Madeira vines, loaded with their wealth of fragrant blossoms, hung pendant from the chandeliers, and diffused throughout the rooms a perfume more grateful to the senses than anything that art could produce, while over mirrors and mantels, pictures and doorways, were draped wreaths of that beautiful parasitic production of the south, Spanish moss, brought from Mississippi expressly for the purpose. These moss wreaths were decorated with flowers of various kinds, making the contrast very beautiful and forming a combination that was peculiarly pleasing to the eye, by reason of its oddity.

The guests having all assembled in the front parlor the folding doors were thrown open, exposing to view the bridal party, the officiating clergyman, Rev. Dr. Buck, the bride's family and intimate friends. The bride was most richly attired in a dress of white silk, trimmed with point lace, and decorated with orange blossoms. Her veil, which was very long, was tastefully worn, and was also profusely ornamented with orange blossoms. The bridesmaids, Miss Lettie Peddecord, the younger sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Hanna, of Bloomington, wore dresses of white silk and illusion, and presented a very neat and handsome appearance. The bridegroom and his attendants, Mr. E. F. Carry, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Mr. Richard Forester, of this city, wore full evening dress

The ceremony, which was according to the forms of the Protestant Episcopal Church, was very impressive, and both bride and groom made the proper responses clearly and distinctly. After the final prayer congratulations were in order, and the whole company filed past the bridal party, each individual or couple being presented to the bride and groom and their attendants by Mr. B. K. Durfee.

Supper, that inseparable companion of a wedding, was served at half-past six o'clock, and, like everything else connected with this elegant affair, elicited the close attention and the most extravagant praise of every guest. The manner of serving the repast, the studious efforts of the host and hostess to see that everybody was properly waited upon, no less than the faultless composition of the supper itself, all contributed vastly to the enjoyable character of this important part of the pleasures of the evening. After supper the tables were removed and the dance began, Prof. Goodman's fine band discoursing most excellent music.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of elegant and valuable presents, the donors being almost exclusively her own relatives and most intimate friends, together with the friends, business partners and employees of the bridegroom, but inasmuch as the practice of advertising the comparative wealth and liberality of people on such occasions, by publishing their names and gifts, seldom pleases those of sensitive natures who find their testimonials of regard thus rudely heralded to the world, our readers must pardon the omission to print them in this sketch, and learn what they can from the gossips, who are more apt to be posted on such matters than any newspaper can be.

It is not likely that any party ever given in Decatur had among its guests representatives from so many different states as were gathered together last evening, upon the occasion of the wedding in question.—Both bride and groom enjoy a widely extended circle of acquaintance, and from east and west, north and south, came their relatives and intimate friends. Among the guests from abroad were Mr. Robert J. Ingram, of Chicago; Mr. Max Hoferg, of Terre Haute; Mr Charley Capen and Mr. Geo Hanna, of Bloomington; Miss Mary Harper and Miss Lida Harper, of Philadelphia; Hon. Calvin H. Frew, of Paxton, Ill.; Capt. and Mrs. S. M. Lake, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Fred. Gorham, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Miss Woodie Mc Cormick, of Omaha; Mrs. Keyes and Miss Gillette, of Elkhart, Ill.. Mrs. Wm. Hunt and Mr. Chapman, of Trenton, N J; Mr and Mrs. Vonnlgerholtz, of Galveston, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shellabarger, of Topeka, Kan.; Mr. Thompson Rogers, and Mr. W. J. Calhoun, of Arcola, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Miller, of Clinton, and others whose names we did not learn.

The ladies present were dressed with the most exquisite taste, and Decatur probably never before saw so many rich and elegant costumes as were worn on this occasion. The "lords of creation," also, while not exactly "arrayed in purple and fine linen," appeared to be fully up to the standard of well-dressed sufferers, bravely smothering every groan that their tight boots involuntarily sent to their lips, and wearing their light-colored kids as jauntily as though they had not perspired and said naughty words while putting them on.

At ten o'clock the bride and groom departed, taking the fast train for the East. They expect to visit the Canadian cities, New York, Philadelphia and Washington, before they return to their home at Fort Wayne. The bride carries with her the best wishes of her hosts of friends in Decatur, and the bridegroom bears away any amount of congratulations from the people who know that he has secured the possession of what every man needs—a good wife.

The party broke up about midnight, all going away pleased and happy over the enjoyments of the most brilliant and elegant wedding ever witnessed in Decatur.

FIRE AT SPRINGFIELD.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., October 1.—The Anti Monopolists held a meeting here last night and resolved to co-operate with the farmers in their convention to be held in this city, October 11, to nominate county officers. The ticket nominated yesterday by the Democrats has given great dissatisfaction to the Irish element of that party, and they openly declare they will not support it. If they do not, defeat is certain.

The State Board of Equalization are progressing with their work, which is now in the hands of the General Equalization Committee. Their report is complete. The clerks are at work upon the computation of the per cent. to be added and deducted. The Committee on Capital Stock are unable to complete their work until the report of the Equalization Committee is adopted by the Board, and it is not probable, therefore, that an agreement will be reached before next week. The final report will not alter the status of Cook county to her benefit. If anything her assessment will be again raised.

NEW YORK, October 1.—The Grant Locomotive Works at Paterson, N. J., on account of the scarcity of greenbacks, has discharged 175 men in addition to those previously removed.

Work on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad tunnel through Bergen hill, has been suspended, throwing over 400 men out of employment.

The Cummings Car Company, of Jersey City has been obliged to suspend, although its assets will more than cover its liabilities. The trouble with the works is that large amounts due from railroad companies cannot be collected.

NEW YORK, October 1.—Noon.—Money is loaning at 8 per cent., with interest added at 7 per cent. Gold is 110⅛. Government bonds are dull.—State bonds are quiet and steady.

TOLEDO, O., Oct.—At the annual meeting of the Toledo, Wabash & Western Railroad Company, held here today, there was a full representation of stock, and the following board of directors were elected: John F. Tracy, Illinois; Sidney Dillon, Milton Courtwright, John S Cavemont, Ohio, P. L. Cable, Illinois, John Ross, J. D. Cox, Ohio, A. J Crawford, Indiana, A. Schell, Kenyon Cox, Wm. L Scott, George Cecil, L. W. Phelps, Indiana. While the election was being held, after the meeting was organized and votes had been cast, an ex parte preliminary injunction, issued by Judge Paine, of Cleveland, was served, restraining certain stockholders from voting. After the election the new board organized and elected ex-Secretary of the Interior, J. D Cox, President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The public debt statement shows a decrease during the month of September of $1,901,467; and total debt less cash in treasury $2-139,793,392; in treasury $94,795,789.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.—The feeling in financial and commercial circles continues to improve, and while business is quiet, there is a stronger and more confident tone to the markets.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—The feeling of depression caused yesterday by the final suspension of the Union National Bank, seems to be rapidly giving way, and the prospect this morning is much more cheerful than for a number of days past. The grain markets are firmer and prices are advancing. It is stated that the Third National Bank will probably resume within a week, and there appears now to be no danger but that the now suspended banks will be able to come through all right. There may be some little difficulty in the settlement of grain contracts to-day, but it is not likely to be serious, as there are not believed to be many sales outstanding. Indeed, the situation is so much improved that some of the banks have already begun to furnish accommodations to grain dealers in a judicious way, and as the influx of currency does not diminish (some three million having been received yesterday) these accommodations will doubtless be extended by all the banks, and business resume its usual channels.

SPRINGFELD, Ill., October 1.—An alarm of fire was sounded at 7 o'clock this evening from the Leland Hotel.—The fire originated in the linen room on the third floor. It was thought at one time that the entire building would be destroyed, it being almost impossible to ascertain the exact location of the fire in the building. The department now have it under control. The damage is considerable, caused principally by the water used.

THE latest accounts from England indicate that the tide has again changed in favor of the claimant. The London Telegraph says that "the popularity of the claimant seems greater than ever." This turn in public sentiment has been chiefly occasioned by the evidence of one Bogle, an old man 63 years of age, and for thirty or forty years a confidential servant in the Tichborne family. His recognition of the claimant as the genuine Roger Tichborne was confident, and sustained by many explicit statements of great force.

The impression made by this witness upon the jury and the public is described as having been very favorable; and the answers in detail were of a kind to put a new face upon many of the unexplained and suspicious circumstances that have been brought forward against the claimant. From present indications, the Government will scarcely be able to induce the jury to convict the claimant of perjury

THE vexed question whether a married woman can become a bankrupt has once more been adjudicated upon, and this time in Indiana, by Judge Gresham, of the United States District Court at Evansville. The case was a proceeding in bankruptcy brought by Hays, Gibbon & Co., of St. Louis, against Rachel Goodman, a married woman.—The petition charged that Mrs. Goodman was the wife of Morris Goodman, and that for several years she had been engaged in business in her own name in Evansville, Indiana; that she was indebted to them in the sum of $487.-27, and had committed an act of bankruptcy. The court ruled that in accordance with the statues of the State a married woman cannot engage in any kind of business on her own account, unless she have separate property; that if a woman, not having separate property engages in business, the profits belong to the husband as the earnings of the wife, and that a married woman in Indiana possessed of no separate estate is relieved of none of the disabilities imposed upon her by the common law. These rules being established by the statues, and the petition failing to show that Mrs Goodman was possessed of any separate property or means with which she was carrying on her business, the court declared that she could not be adjudged a bankrupt. This decision is exactly the reverse of several decisions which have been made in this State in similar cases; the Supreme Court itself having declared that married women can make business contracts, form partnerships, and enjoy the privileges of bankruptcy

FALSE AND FOOLISH PROPHETS.

From the Chicago Post.

Perhaps the most exasperating idiocy inflicted upon newspaper readers as a consequence of the present crisis, is that which ornaments the columns of the ex-Liberal organs in the shape of statistical arguments going to show an imminent present danger that the Treasury of the United States may become bankrupt. Some millions of greenbacks have been exchanged for bonds, we are told—but the country is well enough aware of that. Rates of taxation have been reduced, it is added, and the revenue thereby impaired; and the remedy for this, our preternaturally wise political economists assure us, must be sought upon the homeopathic principle, in a still further reduction of taxes on imports! Consequently Congress must be called together to undertake a job of tariff revision that would certainly occupy six months, as a means of relief from a crisis that the same authorities are confident will leave the Treasury as empty as a "Liberal" editor's head in sixty days. This sort of argument illustrates the straits to which abstract theorists are reduced by the supposed necessity of torturing every passing event into fodder for their favorite hobbies. The utter folly of the theory of a probable exhaustion of the Treasury is demonstrated by the fact that there is at this moment in its vaults money enough to more than pay all demands against the government that will accrue up to the first of January—the date of the predicted bankruptcy—leaving all the receipts of the Department to accumulate undisturbed meanwhile. There is a possibility, perhaps, that the expenditures in currency may exceed the receipts from internal revenue in the designated interval; but that would merely necessitate either the sale of a few millions of the gold hoard, or the reissue of a part of the $44,000,000 reserve. If croaking has become a necessity instead of one of the luxuries of existence to the "Liberal" mind, an effort should be made to find themes and occasions for its enjoyment a little less absurd than that offered by the condition of the Treasury.

SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 1.—The articles of incorporation of the Paris & Terre Haute Railroad Company were this day filed in the office of the Secretary of State. The proposed line of the railroad is from Paris, Illinois, in a southeasterly course, striking the line between the States of Illinois and Indiana, near the northeast corner of Clark county, Ill. The amount of the capital stock is $15,000. The Board of Directors is composed of the following persons: R G Hervey, J A Eads, H VanSeller, J Steele and F C Stratton, of Paris, Edgar county; D Hitchcock, Decatur; C J Mac, Mattoon; J Elliott and A Morton, Elbridge, Edgar co

A FASHIONABLE WEDDING AT A SENSIBLE HOUR.

A Large and Pleasant Party.

For some weeks past there have been numerous indications that something unusual was about to transpire in the social world of Decatur. Milliners and tailors have found their services in active demand, while dry goods stores have been ransacked to find material with which to adorn and beautify the female form divine. All these preparations came to a focus yesterday afternoon, and after barbers, bootblacks, female hairdressers, dressing maids and all the other indispensable adjuncts of well-clad society had put the final touches to the human pictures which the artists in fine clothes had so skillfully wrought upon for weeks—after all these had been satisfactorily concluded, and the momentous hour named in the cards of invitation drew on apace, all these various specimens of well-dressed humanity began to gravitate towards one common center, namely, the elegant mansion of Mr and Mrs. J. J. Peddecord, whose daughter, Emma, was to be joined in marriage with Mr. Ernst C. Rurode, of Fort Wayne, Ind. Carriages, coaches, barouches, phaetons and buggies unloaded their precious cargoes of youth and beauty, age and decrepitude, at the door of the residence, and before the hour fixed for the ceremony, five o'clock, the guests had nearly all arrived, and the spacious mansion was crowded to its full capacity.

The parlors and other apartments of the house had been most charmingly decorated for the occasion. Festoons of Madeira vines, loaded with their wealth of fragrant blossoms, hung pendant from the chandeliers, and diffused throughout the rooms a perfume more grateful to the senses than anything that art could produce, while over mirrors and mantels, pictures and doorways, were draped wreaths of that beautiful parasitic production of the south, Spanish moss, brought from Mississippi expressly for the purpose. These moss wreaths were decorated with flowers of various kinds, making the contrast very beautiful and forming a combination that was peculiarly pleasing to the eye, by reason of its oddity.

The guests having all assembled in the front parlor the folding doors were thrown open, exposing to view the bridal party, the officiating clergyman, Rev. Dr. Buck, the bride's family and intimate friends. The bride was most richly attired in a dress of white silk, trimmed with point lace, and decorated with orange blossoms. Her veil, which was very long, was tastefully worn, and was also profusely ornamented with orange blossoms. The bridesmaids, Miss Lettie Peddecord, the younger sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Hanna, of Bloomington, wore dresses of white silk and illusion, and presented a very neat and handsome appearance. The bridegroom and his attendants, Mr. E. F. Carry, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Mr. Richard Forester, of this city, wore full evening dress.

The ceremony, which was according to the forms of the Protestant Episcopal Church, was very impressive, and both bride and groom made the proper responses clearly and distinctly. After the final prayer congratulations were in order, and the whole company filed past the bridal party, each individual or couple being presented to the bride and groom and their attendants by Mr. B. K. Durfee.

Supper, that inseparable companion of a wedding, was served at half-past six o'clock, and, like everything else connected with this elegant affair, elicited the close attention and the most extravagant praise of every guest. The manner of serving the repast, the studious efforts of the host and hostess to see that everybody was properly waited upon, no less than the faultless composition of the supper itself, all contributed vastly to the enjoyable character of this important part of the pleasures of the evening. After supper the tables were removed and the dance began, Prof. Goodman's fine band discoursing most excellent music.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of elegant and valuable presents, the donors being almost exclusively her own relatives and most intimate friends, together with the friends, business partners and employees of the bridegroom, but inasmuch as the practice of advertising the comparative wealth and liberality of people on such occasions, by publishing their names and gifts, seldom pleases those of sensitive natures who find their testimonials of regard thus rudely heralded to the world, our readers must pardon the omission to print them in this sketch, and learn what they can from the gossips, who are more apt to be posted on such matters than any newspaper can be

It is not likely that any party ever given in Decatur had among its guests representatives from so many different states as were gathered together last evening, upon the occasion of the wedding in question.—Both bride and groom enjoy a widely extended circle of acquaintance, and from east and west, north and south, came their relatives and intimate friends. Among the guests from abroad were Mr. Robert J. Ingram, of Chicago, Mr. Max Hoterg, of Terre Haute, Mr Charley Capen and Mr Geo. Hanna, of Bloomington; Miss Mary Harper and Miss Lida Harper, of Philadelphia, Hon Calvin H. Frew, of Paxton, Ill.; Capt. and Mrs. S M Lake, of Washington, D. C; Mrs. Fred. Gorham, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Miss Woodie Mc Cormick, of Omaha; Mrs. Keyes and Mrs Gillette, of Elkhart, Ill., Mrs. Wm Hunt and Mr. Chapman, of Trenton, N J., Mr and Mrs. Vennigerholtz, of Galveston, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shellabarger, of Topeka, Kan; Mr. Thompson Rogers, and Mr. W. J. Calhoun, of Arcola, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Miller, of Clinton, and others whose names we did not learn.

The ladies present were dressed with the most exquisite taste, and Decatur probably never before saw so many rich and elegant costumes as were worn on this occasion. The "lords of creation," also, while not exactly "arrayed in purple and fine linen," appeared to be fully up to the standard of well-dressed sufferers, bravely smothering every groan that their tight boots involuntarily sent to their lips, and wearing their light-colored kids as jauntily as though they had not perspired and said naughty words while putting them on.

At ten o'clock the bride and groom departed, taking the fast train for the East. They expect to visit the Canadian cities, New York, Philadelphia and Washington, before they return to their home at Fort Wayne. The bride carries with her the best wishes of her hosts of friends in Decatur, and the bridegroom bears away any amount of congratulations from the people who know that he has secured the possession of what every man needs—a good wife.

The party broke up about midnight, all going away pleased and happy over the enjoyments of the most brilliant and elegant wedding ever witnessed in Decatur.

FIRE AT SPRINGFIELD.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., October 1.—The Anti Monopolists held a meeting here last night and resolved to co operate with the farmers in their convention to be held in this city, October 11, to nominate county officers. The ticket nominated yesterday by the Democrats has given great dissatisfaction to the Irish element of that party, and they openly declare they will not support it. If they do not, defeat is certain.

The State Board of Equalization are progressing with their work, which is now in the hands of the General Equalization Committee. Their report is complete. The clerks are at work upon the computation of the per cent. to be added and deducted. The Committee on Capital Stock are unable to complete their work until the report of the Equalization Committee is adopted by the Board, and it is not probable, therefore, that an agreement will be reached before next week. The final report will not alter the status of Cook county to her benefit. If anything her assessment will be again raised.

NEW YORK, October 1.—The Grant Locomotive Works at Paterson, N. J., on account of the scarcity of greenbacks, has discharged 175 men in addition to those previously removed.

Work on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad tunnel through Bergen hill, has been suspended, throwing over 400 men out of employment.

The Cummings Car Company, of Jersey City has been obliged to suspend, although its assets will more than cover its liabilities. The trouble with the works is that large amounts due from railroad companies cannot be collected.

NEW YORK, October 1.—Noon.—Money is loaning at 8 per cent., with interest added at 7 per cent. Gold is 110⅛. Government bonds are dull.—State bonds are quiet and steady.

TOLEDO, O., Oct.—At the annual meeting of the Toledo, Wabash & Western Railroad Company, held here today, there was a full representation of stock, and the following board of directors were elected: John F. Tracy, Illinois; Sidney Dillon, Milton Courtwright, John S. Casement, Ohio, P L. Cable, Illinois, John Ross, J. D. Cox, Ohio, A. J. Crawford, Indiana, A. Schell, Kenyon Cox, Wm. L. Scott, George Cecil, L. W Phelps, Indiana While the election was being held, after the meeting was organized and votes had been cast, an ex parte preliminary injunction, issued by Judge Paine, of Cleveland, was served, restraining certain stockholders from voting. After the election the new board organized and elected ex-Secretary of the Interior, J. D. Cox, President

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The public debt statement shows a decrease during the month of September of $1,001,467; and total debt less cash in treasury $2-139,793,392; in treasury $94,795,789.

CINCINNATI, Oct 1.—The feeling in financial and commercial circles continues to improve, and while business is quiet, there is a stronger and more confident tone to the markets.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—The feeling of depression caused yesterday by the final suspension of the Union National Bank, seems to be rapidly giving way, and the prospect this morning is much more cheerful than for a number of days past. The grain markets are firmer and prices are advancing. It is stated that the Third National Bank will probably resume within a week, and there appears now to be no danger but that the now suspended banks will be able to come through all right. There may be some little difficulty in the settlement of grain contracts to-day, but it is not likely to be serious, as there are not believed to be many sales outstanding. Indeed, the situation is so much improved that some of the banks have already begun to furnish accommodations to grain dealers in a judicious way, and as the influx of currency does not diminish (some three million having been received yesterday) these accommodations will doubtless be extended by all the banks, and business resume its usual channels.

SPRINGFELD, Ill., October 1.—An alarm of fire was sounded at 7 o'clock this evening from the Leland Hotel.—The fire originated in the linen room on the third floor. It was thought at one time that the entire building would be destroyed, it being almost impossible to ascertain the exact location of the fire in the building. The department now have it under control. The damage is considerable, caused principally by the water used

THE latest accounts from England indicate that the tide has again changed in favor of the claimant. The London Telegraph says that "the popularity of the claimant seems greater than ever." This turn in public sentiment has been chiefly occasioned by the evidence of one Bogle, an old man 63 years of age, and for thirty or forty years a confidential servant in the Tichborne family. His recognition of the claimant as the genuine Roger Tichborne was confident, and sustained by many explicit statements of great force.

The impression made by this witness upon the jury and the public is described as having been very favorable; and the answers in detail were of a kind to put a new face upon many of the unexplained and suspicious circumstances that have been brought forward against the claimant. From present indications, the Government will scarcely be able to induce the jury to convict the claimant of perjury.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

Safely Invested and rapidly increasing.

Within the last quarter of a century the business of this Company has embraced the acceptance of over ninety thousand men as members, the receipt of over $14,000,000 in premiums, the payment of nearly $5,000,000 in losses to the representatives of deceased members, and dividends actually returned and promised amounting to over $6,000,000 to the assured. At the same time thousands have accumulated and own absolute securities. The present business of the Company is represented by the receipt of ten thousand applications for policies per annum, and an annual income of over $5,000,000.

All desirable forms of insurance are granted on the most practical plans, embodying the well-known non-forfeiture feature only to be had of this Company in 1850.

In addition to the above a new feature has recently been introduced by this company, called the "Pension Investment System," which combines the advantages of the Tontine Annuity and Life Insurance. Upon this new plan it is confidently expected that the dividends will far exceed those now declared by any other Company.

CONSUMPTION!

AND ITS CURE!

Victims of this awful disease are found in every neighborhood, in almost every house. For them and for their friends, we have tidings of good cheer and hope—the announcement of a most important discovery, firmly based upon common sense and reason, by which the terrible malady is positively controlled, and its victims sure restored to health.

WILSON'S

is not a secret empirical nostrum. It is a happy combination of two remedies known to physicians everywhere as the best means of combating consumption. This combination is Mr. Wilson's discovery, and is founded upon the following

SOUND REASONING.

Consumption is decay. Soothing, expectorant remedies are only useful as palliatives, they do not reach the cause—they do not stop the decay. Tonic medicines strengthen the life forces and prolong the battle, but the decay goes steadily on, and sooner or later the victim must yield. Climatic changes are sometimes good, but they seldom wholly cure. In short, the very first thing to be done is to STOP THE DECAY; then apply the restorative, tonic and strength giving treatment. Think a moment. The Lungs are decaying—tubercles, ulcerations cavities and deposits of poisonous matter (pus) are forming. The circulation carries this poison all over the body. Wasting, loss of appetite, emaciation, night sweats, and all the terrible symptoms appear; is it worth while to doctor the symptoms, which are merely the results, while the decay, which is the cause, is eating up the life springs? These startling things are well known by the best physicians:

1st, Carbolic acid positively arrests Decay. It is the most powerful antiseptic in the known world. Even dead bodies are preserved by it. Entering into the circulation, it at once grapples with corruption, and decay ceases. It purifies the sources of disease.

2d, Cod Liver Oil is Nature's best assistant in resisting Consumption. It is at once a food, a tonic, a purifier, and a healer. It braces up and supplies the vital forces, feeds the wasted system, and enables nature to regain her foothold. For these purposes nothing can compare with Cod Liver Oil.—This is the theory of

CARBOLATED COD LIVER OIL,

As described fully in the inventor's circular, which will be mailed, upon application, to any address.

We cannot afford space to tell the whole story here, or to give the numerous certificates from eminent physicians and well known citizens testifying to the absolutely wonderful results flowing from this great discovery. Suffice it to say, it is curing thousands who supposed themselves to beat death's door.

Willson's Carbolated Oil is scientifically prepared with the purest Carbolic Acid, so combined as to be entirely harmless, with from the celebrated fisheries at Aalesund (Norway) pronounced by physicians the most delicate, efficient Cod Liver Oil in the world.

It is easily taken, tolerated by the weakest stomachs, digests readily, never becomes rancid, and is almost entirely free from the usual disagreeable characteristics of Cod Liver Oil.

For every use of Cod Liver Oil Mr. Willson solicits every test of the greatest value.

For the external administration of Carbolic Acid, Mr. Willson's method of combining it with Cod Liver Oil is absolutely necessary.

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN will be delivered to subscribers in any part of the city, at Twenty Cents per Week.

Local Notices will be inserted at Ten Cents per line for the first insertion, and five cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Rates for time advertisements will be furnished upon application at the office.

TO DAILY SUBSCRIBERS.

☞ Subscriptions to the DAILY REPUBLICAN will be collected every Saturday, at the places where the paper is delivered, unless otherwise ordered.

☞ We would be much obliged if our subscribers would inform the carrier at what particular place they desire their papers to be left.

Official City and County Paper.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

WE are authorized to announce HENRY W. WAGGONER as a candidate for re-election to the office of County Clerk.

WE are authorized to announce MR. OSCAR F. MCKIM as a candidate for re-election to the office of County Superintendent of Schools.

WE are authorized to announce DR. IRA B. CURTIS as an independent candidate for County Treasurer.

WE are authorized to announce MRS. FRANCES L. HICKMAN as a candidate for Superintendent of Schools for Macon Co.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

...Best Rio Coffee, roasted, at Imboden's.

...The coal business seems to be assuming shape and tangibility. We think it pretty safe to calculate that a shaft will be sunk. The location is not yet definitely settled.

...California Wine Bitters impart bloom to the cheek and elasticity to the step.—Armstrong & Brown keep them.

...We regret to learn that Mr. Milton Bivins, of Macon, is quite ill with typhoid fever.

...Mallory's diamond brand fresh oysters at Miller's. (1-tf

...The foliage upon the trees is taking on a variety of colors; yellow, crimson, drab, and various other hues are represented.—These tinges upon the leaves of the trees, though beautiful, like the hectic flush upon the consumptive's cheek, indicate death and decay.

...Our neighbors of Piatt county are having the finest kind of weather for their fair. We learn that the show is a very creditable one. Some of our people will be in attendance, and we hope to learn more fully the extent of the exhibition.

...Fresh oysters, at Imboden's.

...There seems to be no permanent abatement of the yellow fever at Shreveport. Our exchanges are full of the recitals of suffering and destitution occasioned by this terrible scourge. We publish today a communication calling the attention of our people to the matter and asking that something be done to send relief to the stricken population of that section.—We cordially endorse the idea, and sincerely hope some one will move in the matter. We have no doubt our people will respond liberally.

...Our Weekly is issued to day, and contains much valuable information. The daily changes in the financial situation since our last issue will be found fully chronicled, with such comments and suggestions as we have felt it our duty to offer upon the subject. A few extra copies may be found at our office.

...Bro. Crane, of the Tribune, is putting his best foot forward in his work of preparation for removing to his new field of labor. The Tribune of to-day contains a notice of his withdrawal from the paper, but in the withdrawal he leaves his good will and best wishes, and carries with him self the "God bless you" of the Tribune.

The Theater Comique Company came in from Champaign this morning over the new road, by a special train, which they chartered for their exclusive use. They open up at the Opera House this evening. Their exhibition is said by those who have witnessed it to be highly entertaining. With the scale of prices they have adopted they should have a crowded house.

Recovering.—We are happy to learn that Mr. A. R. Corman, of the Tribune, is convalescing, and if no relapse occurs, he will soon be at his post again.

Business Prospects.—The temporary lull occasioned in business circles in our city by the financial crash seems nearly to have passed away. We notice our merchants busy at work waiting upon customers. Grain is coming in quite freely from the country, and the different branches of trade seem to be reviving. We hope our business men will keep a stiff upper lip and push ahead the same as if nothing had happened. Business machinery may move a little heavily for a week or two, but the bearings will soon become well oiled, and the friction arising from the panic will be overcome.

O. U. A. M.—There will be a meeting of the above Order to night, at W. B. Corman's, Water street, over Knieper's jewelry store, at 8 o'clock sharp. A full attendance is requested. BY ORDER.

Millinery and Dress Making.—MRS. R. C. HAMSHER invites the attention of the public to her very full and complete stock of fall millinery goods. She is now east buying her winter goods, and will have of both fall and winter stock a full and complete assortment, embracing the very latest styles. Her dress-making department is also complete, and all work in that line is done with neatness and despatch. [Sept 26-d1w

Died,—At Macon, yesterday morning, after an illness of three weeks, Mrs. Turner, wife of Chas. A. Turner.

AN ENTERPRISING MANUFACTURING ESTABLISHMENT.

If there are any establishments of which a city may be proud, it is its manufactories. Mechanical skill, judiciously employed, is a source of wealth to any community, and should be encouraged by every person who feels an interest in the growth and prosperity of his town.

We have several times called attention to our manufacturing establishments in a general way, but the purpose of this article is to call particular attention to the flourishing wagon and carriage manufactory of KRAMER & MCCLELLAND, on East Main street. We have been shown through their establishment, where we found some of the finest specimens of carriage work we have ever seen. Our attention was particularly arrested by a beautiful phaeton, just completed, which has been built for our county clerk, Henry W. Waggoner, Esq., and cost between five and six hundred dollars. In symmetry and beauty of style and finish, it excels anything in the carriage line we have seen in the city. It will soon appear upon the streets and our people will get a much better idea of its elegance and beauty from personal observation than they could possibly gather from any description we could give of it. Suffice it to say it is a perfect gem. They have also much other finished work, which is of the very best quality, and fully attests the ability of this firm to turn out first class work. Both the wood and iron department are under the special supervision of the proprietors, and none but first class workmen are employed. Their work is also trimmed and painted in their own shop, and no better work in these departments can be found anywhere than can be seen there.

This firm employs in all from fifteen to twenty hands, and thus contribute much to the thrift and business of the community.

They manufacture all kinds of wagons and carriages, from heavy farm wagons to the most genteel buggies, both open and covered. In a word, any person wanting anything in their line can feel assured that they will get as good work and upon as reasonable terms as they can get at any establishment in the State.

THE GREAT SCOURGE.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—The appeal published by the Howard Association and physicians attending at Shreveport, La., is a matter not to be overlooked.

In the short distance of a few hundred miles from Decatur our fellow-beings are dying by the hundreds from yellow fever, a disease dreadful indeed, that seems to spare but few of those it attacks. The reports are truly heart-rending. Those whom the disease has so far spared, are in danger of starvation, from want of labor, want of means and provisions.

I have been waiting for several days, to see some of our prominent citizens in this city take the initiative, by either making up a collection, or by calling a public meeting to devise means and ways, to aid and alleviate the suffering of our fellow-beings at Shreveport, Memphis, or wherever else needed in this dire necessity.

When Chicago called for charity two years ago, Decatur responded nobly. Has Decatur no response to make to Shreveport's appeal? Did our charity spend all its fury in assisting Chicago? Is there not one of our prominent citizens who can spare a few moments to make up a collection to alleviate this heaven crying calamity?

Please give this matter your immediate attention. Keep it before the eyes of this community until something is done. We know not how soon we may need the charity of others. H. M. O.

A Prisoner Without an Accuser.—On yesterday a man about middle age reported at one of our Justice's offices and said he was arrested the day before for drunkenness, and was to be tried at 3 o'clock yesterday. He came to time promptly, and waited patiently until 4 o'clock, when, no one appearing against him, he was free by limitation. So he went on his way rejoicing.

Fast Driving.—We have noticed, of late, some cases of fast driving through business portions of the city. This is an exceedingly dangerous practice, and ought not to be allowed. Accidents are quite frequent enough with all the precaution that can be used, and all unnecessary exposures from fast and reckless driving should be avoided.

Attention, Firemen!—The regular monthly meeting of Young America Hook and Ladder Company will be held in the new Firemens' Hall, on West Main street, to-morrow (Friday) evening.

By order of ALBERT JONES.

Pure Articles.—All the articles manufactured by Steel & Price, Chicago and St. Louis, are composed of the purest materials. They take special pride in having their goods of the very best quality. Their Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder has maintained its reputation for purity and goodness for the last seven years, while their Dr. Price's Special Flavorings, Vanilla, Lemon, etc., are said to be unequaled by anything of the kind in the market.

The grain buyers complain that the scarcity of currency has stopped operations in their line.

John Niles, the lumber merchant, is building a fine new store-room near his lumber yard, which will, when finished, be occupied with a stock of furniture and hardware.

Mr. Hornbarger is kept busy now supplying the people in the clothing line.

Mr. Hatfield is making arrangements, at his elevator to grind corn, in addition to his usual grain business.

Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science few are of more real value to mankind, than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs And this fact of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power, and cases of Consumption, once by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed when not proven beyond dispute As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious illness, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attacks of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected Let the lungs need this defence, and it is unwise to be without it As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable, for, by its timely use multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them It acts specifically and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured

Originally the product of long laborious, and successful chemical investigation no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach liver, and bowels They are a mild aperient, and an excellent purge the Being purely vegetable they contain no mercury or mineral whatever Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use, and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution or diet or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure —

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor, and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice, Dyspepsia or Sick-ness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action, or remove the obstructions which cause it

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back, and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system With such change these complaints disappear

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion, and relish the food eaten An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite and invigorates the system Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus
